WILL OF JOHN NANCE, CLARKE CO., GEORGIA BOOK D PAGE 93

I. John Nance, of the county and state aforesaid, being in feeble health, but in sound mind and memory, and knowing that is appointed unto man once to die and having faith in the redeemer of sinful and hope through his merits of a part in his glorious resurrection, I do make and ordain this as my last will and testament hereby revoking all other wills heretofore made by me,

Having few or no debts to pay and wishing to do justice to all my children, I state that what I have heretofore done for them and each of them I consider as putting upon equal footing, and nothing heretofore given to any of my legatees is to be considered as an advancement, but each legatee is to keep and enjoy what has heretofore been received and is not to account for the same. I wish further to state that the two negroes given by me to my daughter Sarah McAlphin after her marriage were bought by her husband Alexander McAlphin with her own money and although the transaction was in my own name, the money and the negroes never belonged to me or constituted any part of my estate. I further state that the house and lot in Athens whereon William S. Weatherly lives was paid for by him and the deed of the same made by me to his with his consent and that said lot is no part of my estate and was not advancement to him or any of his children he having paid for it himself out of his earnings by paying off from time to time the note in bank on which the money was borrowed to buy the lot,

Having made the foregoing statements, my will and desire is that my children: Reuben, Nancy, Sarah, Eunice, Wesley, Madison, Elizabeth and Mary
