WILL OF JOHN NANCE,,,,,26 Oct.1894

I, John Nance do make and publish this my Last Will and Testament hereby revoking and making void all other wills by me made heretofore. First: I desire that all just debts and funeral expenses be paid out of any money may be on hand or may first come into the hands of my Executors.

SECOND: I give and bequeath my beloved wife, Deborah Nance, three hundred dollars over and above the amount that may be coming to her on our marriage contract, I desire her to have all the household furniture she brought here and, I desire that my Executors see that my wife is well cared for as long as she lives, and see to lending out her money and that she is not cheated out of same, to act as Trustee for her, to let her have money whenever she needs it. I can't tell now what may be coming to her on our marriage contract, but I suppose from eight hundred to one thousand dollars. She will
