

keep a note to show what will be due her,

THIRDLY: I desire that all my children be made as near equal in the division of my estate as they can be.

To my son Julian Nance I give the plantation on which he now lives, known as the Sam Smith place, I value this to him at the sum of thirty three hundred dollars.

I give my son Greenberry Nance the plantation on which he now lives known as the Duff place, I value this place to him at the sum of thirty-one hundred. I give my daughter Rosannah Vineyard the plantation on which she now lives, known as the James Allaup place, I value this place to her at twenty three hundred dollars, I also advance to her and her husband Sterling Vineyard some years back, one thousand dollars cash, I also advanced lately to my said daughter Rosannah Vineyard twelve hundred dollars to pay for the plantation they bought from my wife.

I give to my son Paschal Nance my homeplace being the lands I bought from my Father, Seth McKinney, and M,H, Stone. I value this place to him at four thousand dollars, I also advanced to Paschal Nance two lots of fat steers some years ago, I value them to him at three hundred dollars, I advanced to my son John Nance in his lifetime twenty-one hundred and fifty dollars, I advanced to Cricket's guardian, G.B. Mitchell fifty dollars to help pay for her organ. I have advanced to John's son Robert six hundred and twentyfive dollars paid for land, I desire Johnny 's share of my estate to be equally divided between his three children to wit: Robert Nance. Cricket Nance, and Bertie Nance, Sallie Mitchell my deceased daughter, I advanced to her I think three hundred and twenty dollars, and the remainder of her share I desire to go to her five children to wit: Elizabeth Nance, Eliza Collett, John Mitchell, Linea Calloway, Sealy Mcby in the way and manner here-in-after described I have advanced to Eliza Collett, wife of Jasper Collett eighty dollars. I paid for a gray mare they bought from Paschal Nance. I also give to said Eliza Collett the place they have had in their possession a long time, known as the Ferguson place. I value this place to her at six hundred dollars, I have advanced to John Mitchell, seven hundred and seventy three dollars. I have advanced to James McBee for Sealy his wife seven hundred dollars, Since then I have paid John Mitchell fifty dollars they owed him, making seven hundred fifty dollars advanced to her. The remainder of her share of my estate, that is Sealy McBee's share, wife of James McBee, I detail in the following manner: I forbid my Executors or any one else letting it go into the hands of her husband, but into the hands of John Mitchell her brother as Trustee, and to be loaned for her benefit, to let her have a little at a time as she needs the same to support on, but in no case not to let her have any money to put in her husbands hands. But if her husband should die or she became divorced from him, then the money may be turned over to her own disposal, but if Sealy should die while there is any money of hers in her brother's hands, then such funds shall belong to her brother John Mitchell. But if she has a child or children to go to them as her heirs.

I have advanced to Elizabeth Nance the sum of seven hundred dollars,

I have advanced to Linea Calloway seven hundred and twenty-nine dollars and forty cents,

I have advanced to my son Green Berry Nance one thousand dollars. I advance to my grandson Sam Nance $404,00 when he bought the Cooper land, Which amount must come out of Julian Nance's share. I have no notes for any of these advancements, Any notes I may have on any of my children are not advancements,
