

1) Frederick Nance Will (made 1 Nov,1839, Probated 13 Feb,1840) mentions present wife Teresa (Ruff). Step daughter Martha C. His children: daughters Dorothy B. Pratt, Laura Ann Butler, Sarah W. Griffin (now wife of Jno. K. Griffin); sons R.R., Drayton, Frederick Jr., and Alfred Nance. Vol. IV Bk. 1, pp. 1-4.

Grave stone: Mrs. Amelia Dunlap (b.21 Mar,1803 - d.2 Nov.1824), daughter of Frederick and Elizabeth Nance. (proof of Frederick and Robert's being brothers)

2) Clement Nance Will (made 8 Mar.1828, Probated 4 Jan.1844) To wife (unnamed) estate, unless she die or marry until my youngest children shall reach 21. To son, William G. Nance, to William Baugh Shell and wife, Nancy. Executors: 1. Robert R. Nance, 2, Drayton Nance, 3. Thomas Pratt, 4. Robert Dunlap, 5. William Baugh Shell, (these executors are two sons and two sons-in-law of Frederick Nance and Wm, Baugh Shell, wife of his daughter Nancy. This is evidence that Frederick, Clement and Robert are brothers)

3) Robert Nance Will (made 28 Feb.1814 - probated 4 Dec.1822) leaves entire estate to wife Sally, after her death to his niece Amelia Nance, daughter of Frederick Nance. Vol. 2, Book I, (This established Frederick and Robert as brothers)

See will of Erasmus G. Nance, 1851, Newberry

From N)d: David Nance is the father of the three above according to NM. This statement appears doubtful, as the will of William Crenshaw, 1786, Amelia, Va., leaves gifts to his grand children, William, David, Susannah, Mary, and Elizabeth Nance, children of his daughter, Mary, and David Nance, deceased. (The Newberry group would have been minors at this time and it is doubtful that all three would have been excluded from their grandfather's will.)
