

Hospital. His friends made the utmost exertion to obtain his remains, but without success. He sleeps at Puebla, in Mexico. This monument is here erected to his memory in the burial place of his Father's.

Sacred to the Memory of Lucinda Ann, wife of Frederick Nance, Jr., daughter of John and Rebecca Bullock. Born Oct.31, 1811. Died Oct.B, 1829. Age 17 years, 11 months, and 8 days.

Sacred to the Memory of Frances E., wife of P. C. Caldwell, Esq., and daughter of Major Frederick Nance. She was born May 13, 1816, and died March 3, 1832, leaving her husband and infant son, with numerous friends and relations to mourn their loss. (Notes JSH - dates correct - she was not quite 16 - it makes me want to weep)

Sacred to the Memory of Margaret Ann, daughter of Robert and Sarah W. Dunlap, born March 9, 1835, died 12th Dec.1838. Aged 3 years, 9 months and 3 days.

Beneath this cold Tomb lies the remains of Robert Nance, a native of Virginia born 10th Jan.1776 and died 17th Nov. 1822,

Here lies the body of Drayton O'Neall Nance, the youngest son of Robert R. and Mary S. Nance. He was born Nov. 15th, 1835. He died July 2, 1864.

To the Memory of Mrs. Amelia Dunlap, wife of Robert Dunlap, Esq., daughter of Major Frederick and Elizabeth Nance, of Newberry, born 21st March 1803 and died 2nd Nov.1824.

Sacred to the Memory of Erasmus G. Nance, third son of Clement and Elizabeth S. Nance, who was born 8th Jan.1814 and died 8th Jan.1855, aged 41 years. (Note JSH - dates correct - he must have died on his birthday.)

Sacred to the Memory of Elizabeth Dunlap, eldest daughter of Sarah W. and Robert Dunlap, who died on the 6th Aug.1834, born 25th Jan. 1831, aged 3 years, 6 months, 11 days.

Sacred to the Memory of Thomas Pope, second son of R. R. and M. S. Nance, who was born March 4th 1824, and died Oct. 7th 1826.

Mary E. Caldwell, daughter of P. C. and F. E. Caldwell born Aug. 29th, 1829, died June 9th 1830.

Sacred to the Memory of Frederick Nance, Sr., a native of Amelia Co., State of Virginia, who died Feb. 10th 1840, aged about 70 years. He came to this state a youth without means of friends, but by a course of industry and prudence and a correct deportment, among those with whom his lot was cast, he acquired wealth. As a parent he was affectionate and solicitous for the welfare of his children. As a master, humane and liberal. In his intercourse with men, he was influenced by the principal that others had rights as well as himself and therefore respected them. His children, among the many frailties incident to human nature, saw his many virtues, and mourned, in him, the loss of a Parent and Benefactor. Out of the patrimony which he left them, this monu-