

meat is erected to his memory. (Note jsh - he had to be older than 70 to have been Clerk in 1785, etc,

Sacred to the Memory of Elizabeth Nance, wife of Frederick Nance, Sr., who was born March 29th 1772 and died Oct.14, 1829., leaving a husband, eight children, and a large connexion to mourn her irreparable loss. This monument is erected by a fond Husband as a small tribute of respect to the many virtues that adorned her while living, and will crown her with joys unspeakable and full of glory to which she has gone. For 35 years she was exemplary in the important relations of wife, mother, and mistress, and although she was strictly attentive to the duties which devolved upon her in this life, she was not unmindful of the promise held forth in the words of, "Come unto Me all ye that are heavy laden, and I will give you rest."

The Newberry Nance Information from

A letter from Mrs. Frances "Shell" McCoy, 1890.

Data from Mrs. J. E. Mercer, Vadalisa, Ga., 1959.

Family Bible Records, Clement Nance.

"Newberry S.C. Historical and Genealogical" by Leland Summers. 1950.

"Nance Memorial" by George Nance. 1904

"Nance Wills and Administrations" by Dr. Robert Nance

Newberry, S.C. Court Records

Data from Mrs. Marilyn Van Way, 7414 Jack Wood, Houston, Texas

DIVISION IV

DESCENDANTS OF DAVID NANCE

David Nance, wife Mary Crenshaw, his parents uncertain. In the NM his father was thought to be William How, but not certain. John and Jane Nance had a son William, bn. 1728. David md. Mary Crenshaw in 1769, The age certainly coincides. The William lived in the same area; however very little information has been found.

Giles Nance deeded land to David and William H. Nance, orphan eons of David Nance, deceased, 1796, for love and affection. Doubtless there was a very close family relationship here. Giles would be much to young to be father of David, but could have been a brother (?). In this case David's father would have been John Nance Jr., wife Martha, brother to above mentioned William (b.1728). This writer is inclined to believe that David is the son of William Nance, son of John and Jane.

Ref. NM says David is a Revolutionary Soldier. No records of Service.

Pittsylvania, Va. Bk. #4, p.41, 23 Oct.1777, David and Buckner Nance brought into court and charged with being enemies to the Commonwealth and charged to keep the peace.

Bk. #4, p.285, 22 Jan.1780 - Robert Bullington found guilty of having stabbed and killed David Nance.

Amelia Co., Va., 7 Mar.1786, will of Wm. Crenshaw leaved gifts to David's children: David and William, Sussanna, Mary and Elizabeth Nance (in as much as all of David's children were minors, the writer believes these