INTRODUCTION

Through correspondence with Nance descendants, the compiler has discovered that other Nances share some of these same families as common ancestors. This leads me to believe that many more Nance descendants could probably trace their ancestry to one or more of these allied families. For this reason I have included my allied families in hope that some joint effort may be formed in the future to make a more thorough research on some of these.

Most of the material contained in this portion of the NANCE REGISTER has been documented from one of the following sources.

1. "Ancestral Roots of 60 Colorists Who Came to New England Between 1623-1650" by Frederick Lewis Weis, 1960, Supplement 1952.
2. "The Magna Charta Securities 1215" by Arthur Adams and Frederick Lewis Weis, 1956.
3. "A Carolina-Virginia Genealogy" by York Wilson. 1962.
4. "Our Children's Ancestors" by Sarah Cantey Whitaker Allen. 1936.
5. "Ancestral Records and Portraits" by Grafton. Vol. I.
6. "Some Prominent Virginia Families" by Pequet de Bellet. Vol. II.
7. "Hills of Wilkes County Georgia" by Lodwick Hill.
8. Official Court Records
