INTRODUCTION

To the editor's knowledge, two books on the Nance family have been published previously. They are the Nance Memorial by George Nance 1904, and the History and Genealogy of the Nances by Davidson Nance 1935. Both these fellow kinsmen made great contributions toward the preservation of our English and American heritage.

In 1965, Walker P. Nance of Austin, Texas, made another contribution to the Nance family when he had three hundred copies of the Nance Memorial reprinted. Since that time, this book has been distributed in every section of our nation, and has revived family interest to a point of realization that a more complete and up-to-date family book is needed.

Most family books contain some errors and the Nance Memorial and History and Genealogy of the Nances are no exceptions. I am sure the Nance Register can be included in this category. Should you have cause to complain about the information included in the family lineages, however, I suggest you write to the person who submitted the information. In each case, his name and address is listed. (The Nance Memorial will further be referred to as "NM" and the History and Genealogy of the Nances is "HGN".)

Since publication of NM and HGN, several thousand older Nance records have been discovered which point to errors in both publications. The purpose of this book is to present these records to the living and future generations of Nances in hope that they will be of value in finding unknown ancestors, extending correct family lineages and knowing their living kinfolk.

For many years Nance genealogists have attempted to find the one record which will prove that Richard Nance is the ancestral head of the American Nance family. Even though certain evidence indicates this to be correct, I am sorry to say that at this writing, this proof has not been established.

The compiling of this book is due to the interest of our family history and the desire of many to gather together records which might otherwise be lost, in hope that they may be helpful to other future generations.

A family history is not compiled by any one person, but by numerous individuals, over the generations, who have contributed from time to time about their respective family lines. There have been several publications in the past concerning our family which give us several of the old established lines. It is the intent of the compiler to incorporate this information with the many heretofore unpublished records and family lineages. And that this book should be a genealogical aid for those seeking information on the Nances or some of their allied families.

I wish to take this means of expressing my appreciation for the invaluable cooperation of those that made this publication possible. Space does not permit each individual name and address on this page, but each contributor is recognized with their individual families. Dr. Robert Nance of Radford, Virginia; Mrs. Bruce A. Kindig of Medicine Lodge, Kansas; and Mrs. Vivian King Bullock of Los Angeles, California, were most instrumental in contributing most of the general family information found herein, and words cannot express my thanks.

It is hoped that the publication of this book will provide a stimulus to its readers so that, as a result, sufficient information will be supplied to warrant the publication of a supplemental volume in the future. Undoubtedly, some of the lines can be enlarged with information already available to members of the family.

It is our belief that most of the families in Section V belong to one of the families of Books I, II, III, or IV, and someday will be traced back to Richard Nance, American emigrant before 1639, so the American generation number is used to identify the ancestral head.

Chapter I

EARLY EUROPEAN HISTORY

The first American Nance was Richard, who came from England prior to 1639. The writer has checked all available early passenger lists, but could not find this name listed.

In "Emigrants to Virginia" we find Alice Nance, emigrant to Virginia in 1639, consigned to her now husband, Richard Nance, Virginia colony.

The generally accepted tradition is that we are French Heugenots and fled France to England during the Heugenot persecutions. The Nance Memorial by George Nance elaborated on this subject by publishing several letters written by Nances living in England during the 19th century. If the information is correct, then the Nance family existed in England some 500 years prior to the Heugenot exodus from France.

It is possible we could be Normans, and of Scandinavian origin. At this writing, there are many European, as well as American, mysteries yet unsolved regarding the Nance family. It is my sincere hope that future Nance generations will continue the search and successfully trace our lineage to our European ancestors.

"Exhibit A"

Quotations from a letter written by Elijah Nance, Podstow, Cornwall, England, in 1856, to W. E. Nance, Cardiff, Wales, as presented in NM.

Dear Cousin (I presume):

In reply to your inquiry respecting the origin of the Nance family, I doubt that I shall give you that perfect pedigree that you so anticipate, but brief as it may be it will give you a little knowledge from whence my family sprung.

My brief account only includes seven hundred and ninety years.

In the year 1066, William the Bastard, well known by the name William the Conqueror, being prompted by the Pope of Rome, William soon collected an army and landed them in safety at the place called Hastings, in the county of Sussex. King Harold, the then King of England, managed in haste to give battle, and encamped about seven hundred miles from the Norman army wherein was one of my forefathers as general, and on the seventeenth day of October, 1066, a bloody battle begun at seven o'clock in the morning and lasted until night was closing in, and the Normans were much worsted, when a Norman archer sent an arrow which went through Harold's skull and killed him at once. His army seeing their king and commander dead took to flight in all directions, and the Normans made great slaughter of the retreating army, so from this battle the Normans became masters of all England in due time.

After that battle detachments of the army were sent into all parts of England to take and confiscate what property they thought fit, and General Prideaux came to Podstow, in Cornwall, and my forefather established himself of the Barton of Quandradu, so that the name of Nance and Prideaux have been residents at Podstow for about seven hundred and ninety years past.....

Nearly forty years since I was at the stewards house of the Esquire Prideaux, that gentleman asked me where my family came from, I told him from Nantes, in Normandy, and that my family were adventurers with the Prideaux family, he said he believed it, for he so frequently met with the name of Nance in the writings of the Prideaux.

N.B. - Be it remembered with you that when the Normans came to England they had but one name (a Christian name), but they took to themselves a surname, and my forefather, as he came from Nantes, in Normandy, wrote his name Nance, as I suppose, being a milder way of pronouncing the name correctly. As to all the Nance family they were generally endowed with a generousness and ability being brought to learning in arts and sciences that they were brought to trades such as tailor, carpenters, boot and show makers, hatters, rope makers, wool steplers, farmers, etc. Then there was an Esquire Nance mentioned in the History of Cornwall that was held in high esteem in the county. Again another Esquire Nance that lived not far from Bodmin at a seat called Trengoff, in the Parish of Warligger, about seven miles from Bodmin, he sold his estate for nine hundred and ninety-years but retained Trengoff to his widow as a dower.

Again, my uncle, Andrew Nance, being a hatter, settled himself down in Portsmouth. He kept a shop there and another at Portsea. He got wealthy and his off-spring is wealthy. Then my uncle, George Nance, a tailor, settled at Bath and lived in great opulence there, and having become a merchant tailor was employed by the nobility that visited that city, but poor Elijah Nance never met with so good luck as my predecessors, but I think if you look on the other side and examining my pedigree you will discover that I must be possessed with some of the blood of some of the high rank of the people of England, and not a family in all Wales can produce such a pedigree. My grandfather, in his day, became heir at law to the estate of Wm. Parker, Esquire, in St. Mabyn, Cornwall, and was under the necessity to get it to prove his title to it and sue for it in chancery, and as he did, he was obliged to produce his pedigree.

(Being unable to find one who could interpret the court of chancery records, the author has omitted the pedigree.)

When in London, six years since, a gentleman being informed that a person called Nance was in London, came from Gravesend, a distance of thirty miles to see me and enquire to my pedigree, and the pedigree of the Nance family, he proved to be a son of my cousin, Walter Nance, your great uncle. He was in business as boot and shoemaker at Gravesend. Such is all the knowledge of my family, and such is my pedigree I am in possession of to send unto you.

Dear Sir: - I remember seeing your son in Oxford, and his asking me about my family. I fear I can throw but little light on the family history though I am much interested myself in it, and have paid visits to Warligger, Illogan, and Creed to inspect registers.

My name of "Trengove", is misleading. It is the belief of our family that we do belong to the Warligger Nances, but we cannot trace the early connections. My father gave me the name in that belief, but I am the first one in our branch of the family that has had it. The name is held also by my nephew now at Balliol College, Oxford.

Our family lived at Creed, near Granpound, in Cornwall, and there are several generations there in the registers. My great-grandfather, Rev. Wm.

Nance (Exeter College, Oxford), was curate of Creed. He migrated to Kent, and my father migrated into Staffordshire.

My grandfather was Fellow of Worcester College, Oxford, and made many attempts to trace the genealogy. He had the registers at Warliffon copied and sent to him.

The old county histories of Cornwall say that both the Illogan and Warliffon branches of the family have become extinct.

I have visited Illogan also. The farmhouse at Nance in that parish has still some wooden panels painted with the twelve Apostles. I have searched the registers there and extracted all that belonged to the family. You will find most of the old records of the family in Vivian & Drake's visitation to the County of Cornwall, which you would probably find in any first-class library.

Believe me yours truly,

J. T. Nance

(From NM "The old records spoken of above, being imperfect, are omitted")

Dear Sir: - As I understand you invite communication from every "fellow kinsman" (to use your graphic phrase), allow me to make myself known as a descendant of your male stock, viz., the great-great-great-grandson of Richard Eustis, of Saint Ives, Cornwall, by his wife Margery Nance, of the same town, who were married in 1729. I am the author of the History of St. Ives to which you make reference. I enclose particulars of my Nance descent.

From a document at the London record office I gather that this particular Nance family were known in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries by the additional surname "Molkin", meaning bald according to Borlace, a personal name equivalent to the Welsh "Maelgwn". They were, I believe, originally of Nance in Lelant, but acquired some estate in East Cornwall, whether by marriage or purchase, I do not know. They bore arms: Argent, a crop humettee sable.

Yours faithfully,
John Hobson Matthews

"Exhibit D"

From History of Saint Ives, etc., by Matthews

Nance - This is one of the original Saint Ives families. The name, which is a misspelling of the Cornish word Nans, a valley, indicates that the ancestor who first assumed this cognoman, was a dweller in some inland dale of the neighborhood.

In the year 1327, there was a general subsidy levied upon all England, and the lists of the persons taxed for it are the earliest rolls in existence. "Luca de Nanse" thus appears.

In 1523 Thomas Nanse had goods, etc., also in 1524.

In 1573 John Nanste was a burges of Saint Ives. In 1578 he contributed to the equipment of a trained band fitted out against the Spaniards. In 1590 Captain John Nance. In 1595, John Nanse Captaine, etc. 1543, Symon Nanc. 1592, Mr. Trenance.

John Nance, Jo Nance, Wm. Nance, Rio Nance, Geffrie Nance, Wm. Nance, Wm. Nance church warden, and others appear all along up to about 1700. Marriages: 1778, John Nance and Elizabeth Stevens. 1701, Alien Nance and Wil-mot Thomas. 1711, Thomas Kempthorn and Elizabeth Nance. 1729, Richard Eustis and Margery Nance.

From John Wesley's diary the following items are taken:

"Visited Saint Ives a second time April 3, 1744. I was a little surprised at entering John Nance's house, being received by many, who were waiting for me with a loud, though not a bitter cry.

Again, "Went with John Nance to Rosemargay, in Zennor, etc."

Again, " But between seven and eight the mob came and beset John Nance's house. John Nance and John Paynter went out, and stood before the door; though they were quickly covered with dirt. The cry was, bring out the preacher. Pull down the house."

And again, "On Sunday, 30, about six in the evening, I began preaching in the street near John Nance's door."

Concerning his twenty-fifth visit, on August 26, 1785, Wesley writes: In the evening I preached in the market place at Saint Ives, to almost the whole town. This was the first place in Cornwall where we preached and that was where Satan fought fiercely for his kingdom; but now all is at peace. I found that old John Nance had rested from his labors. Some months since, sitting behind the preacher, in the pulpit, he sunk down and was carried out and fell asleep."

Many other quotations might be made from this work, but these are given not because of any real value, but to give some idea as to the age, number, and prominence of the family.

Andrew Nance, Manager

Tramways Office, Sandy Row
Belfast, August 14, 1897

Geo. W. Nance, Esquire - My dear Sir: - I was away on my vacation when your letter arrived, and so it has not been answered as soon as I could have wished. Your letter very much surprised me for two or more reasons. The number of persons of our name who are known to you in America, is astonishing, and the similarity of traditions with regard to them.

For my own part I do not take any interest in ancestry, nor should I take any trouble about it. My uncle, William, however, who was a lawyer, took a world of trouble and spent a good deal of money in inquiries. I have at some time when a young man, either read or was told what he discovered, but I don't know whether it exists now, nor if it ever was written, or where it would be if it did exist.

First, he found out the "Coat of Arms" of the family. I send it on the paper enclosed. The motto is the same as that of Queen Elizabeth, and I'm told that it indicates that the royal blood of France is in our veins, whether legitimately or not I cannot say. My uncle, William, appears to have satisfied himself that two Huguenot brothers named Clement and Andrew were obliged, with their families, to flee from France at the time of the Huguenot persecutions. They appear to have been an aristocratic and noble family, and the name Nance was a territorial name, and probably we could call ourselves De Nance, if we so desired. They appear to have landed in western England about that period, and the elder brother, Andrew, settled there, and Clement disappeared. You have explained what happened to him in your letter. My uncle, William, would have been delighted to hear what you have written about him. As I told Mr. J. Nance, a friend of mine who spent a summer in the Scilly Islands, found that on one island, all or nearly all, the people were named Nance. I am too old to go and see into the matter, and in truth it is not of any interest to me.

It appears that Andrew Nance lived in or about Cornwall, and there are plenty of Nances thereabouts descended from him. . . Every eldest son was named Andrew. I am the tenth Andrew, the eldest born of each generation. My only child died in infancy and my brother, Walter, named his eldest boy Andrew. So he will be the eleventh, and will probably have what few dollars I possess when my wife is done with them. The seventh Andrew crossed to Normandy from Cornwall and lived there. In Normandy the eighth Andrew was born. The eighth Andrew went to Kent when he was about twenty-one, and I believe the seventh Andrew and his wife, Martha, died there. The eighth Andrew soon left Kent when his parents died, and came to Portsmouth and set up as a hatter. He was a most enterprising man. He bought the "Fountain" and "Blue Ports" Hotels. He married a lady near Portsmouth; had a large family and died there. The ninth Andrew (my father), also lived all his life in Portsmouth, and his wife (my mother), is named Martha, the same as his grandmother. That is wholly all I know and I don't think anyone knows any more. No doubt a search in France would reveal the history and origin of the family from the first.

Truly,
Andrew Nance

Exhibits A,B,C,D, and E have been copied exactly as they appeared in the Nance Memorial by George W. Nance. 1904. pp. 333-337.

September 9, 1610 - Richard, son of Mr. John Nance, baptized at Kavarne (Cornwall, England). From Visitation to Cornwall in the Year 1620 by Vivian and Drake. London. 1874.

There is no evidence whatsoever that this is Richard, American emigrant before 1639, other than the fact that most of the English Nances were found in Cornwall. This Richard and the emigrant Richard seem to be near the same age and the name John is most common among American Nances.

Chapter II

NANCE RECORDS

These records represent a large portion of all legal Nance transactions prior to the War Between the States and should hold many clues for those searching for a link between their family and the early Nance settlers in America.

Dr. Robert B. Nance of Radford College, Virginia, has spent many years in Virginia and North Carolina seeking all available court records concerning the Nances, and is responsible for most of the material contained in Part I. Without Dr. Robert's help, this portion of our book would not have been possible.

Marriage records were not recorded prior to the Revolution; however, deeds, wills, and court minutes have been used to identify many of the spouses names. The date which appears on the marriage bond was the date of issue. Sometimes the ceremony was not performed until several days later; in some cases, several weeks.

Census records were not kept until 1790, and the 1790 Virginia census was lost and has been supplemented by the 1782 Taxpayers list. No doubt many more Nance families lived in Virginia at this time. Most of the later census records (1810-1860) were taken from microfilmed copies. These records were all written by hand, and due to this and to the poor quality of some of the film, it was sometimes hard to decipher the age and spelling of some of the names.

James City County (original shire)

1692 - April 29 land patent to William Nance of James City County, 520 acres in said county, south side Chickahominy River, adjoining Jno. Randall, Gregory Wells, Mr. Bobby, said Nances Neck, 150 acres being due said Nance by marrying daughter and one of coheirs of Grace or Tinsley, who was sister, and one of coheirs of Richard Pierce. It being part of the 600 acres granted said Pierce September 12, 1636, and 370 acres upon the said Nances Survey, and the whole patent being found surplusage within the bounds is also due to said Nance for the transportation of eight persons, viz.: Anne Kerer, Wm. Kent, Wm. Kath Davis, Eliz, Grocer Becrebe Farmer, and Nich. Prior April 29, 1692 (Book 8, p. 231).

1684-1786 - New Kent, James City Vestry Book at St. Peter's Parish lists James and Ann Nance as parents of: William, born 20 January 1726 or 1727; Mary, born 2 May 1737; Keturah, born 21 July 1738; Eaton, born 21 August 1739. (Note: the absence of births between 1727 and 1737 is a good indication of children whose births were not listed in the original register.)

1731 - May 8, agreement between Mr. James Nance and the vestry to do repairs to the church.

Lee County (formed in 1792/3 from Russell and Scott Counties)

1796 - 100 acres of land in Powell's Valley, Lee County, was granted to Phillip Naanes. Cf. Virginia State Land Grants, Bk. 35, p. 650. Note: This person is apparently a Dutch immigrant, for the spelling is Dutch. Several families have said that the tradition is that the Nances are Dutch. The name as pronounced sounds exactly like Nance and this is the way the clerks of the courts wrote it. It makes the untangling of the Nance families in Tennessee and Kentucky extremely complicated, for many of the family names used by this group are found in the Virginia Nances also: i.e. Peter, William, Frederick, and James. I have not found the name Phillip or Hugh in the other families.

1799 - Phillip Nance of Lee County sells to Robert Washam 100 acres bt grant dated 20 September 1796 for 50 lbs, in Powell's Valley, Lee Co., on Trading Creek, April 9. Bk. 1, p. 146.

1810 - Phillip Nance to Joseph Pugh for $269.00, 74 acres on the Powell River, May 1. Bk. 2, p. 337.

1814 - Power of attorney from Phillip Nance to Benjamin Sharp. "I Phillip Nance of Claiborne County, Tennessee, appoint Benjamin Sharp of Lee County, Virginia, to sell lands, etc... in Claiborne and Lee counties..." September 17. Bk. 3, p. 142.

1816 - To Phillip Nance of Claiborne County, Tenn., from Benjamin Sharp. 300 acres on Trading Creek. Bk. 3, p. 219.

OHIO

From "Little Turtle The Great Chief of the Miami Indian Nation" by Calvin M. Young.

The following took place during the defeat of Gen. St. Clair's Army in the present Fort Recovery on the banks of the Wabash river 4th of November 1791. The Indians killed over seven hundred of St. Clair's army. The Indians lost sixty-six warriors. Page 61-62.

"Incredible as it may seem, it is stated that there were two hundred and fifty women among the camp followers in this campaign. This can only be accounted for upon the supposition that they, with the rest of the community, imagined there would be no fighting, that a treaty of friendship would be made with the Indians, and that garrisons would be established under whose protection they, with their husbands, might find new homes. Fifty six women were killed, and they were tortured, if possible, even more fiendishly than the men. Some accounts say: "That two hundred of these women fell victim to savage barbarity.

One woman was running with her babe, but one year old, in her arms, and, in utter exhaustion, as she was about to fall by the wayside she threw her wailing child into the snow. The Indians picked up the babe, spared its life and took it to Sandusky, where it was brought up as one of the tribe. There was a tall woman with streaming red hair known as Red Headed Nance, who kept in advance of all the fugitives and eventually reached Ft. Washington (Cincinnati, Ohio), where she lived until a ripe old age. Years afterward she would tell of the great difficulty she had in saving her scalp at the time of St. Clair's defeat.

Part 2

The Nance Family

Part II

FAMILIES

Gen. I - Richard Nance wife Alice.

First of the name on record in America. How or when Richard Nance arrived in the colonies is still a mystery. We do know he came from England in 1639 or earlier and he did precede his wife to the colonies. Among a list of English emigrants to Virginia Colony the following was found: "Alice Nance consigned to her now husband Richard Nance. Virginia Colony. 1639" (from Emigrants to Virginia)

See Henrico County, Virginia, 1639 land grant. This first grant of record was located on both sides of the Appamatox River which is just south of the James River. It is from this area that three of our oldest established lines have been traced. The Charles City County records show Richard Nance as being a resident of said county in 1665. This county is north of the James River and today contains an area called Nances (Nance's Neck).

This Nance's Neck has been confused by some writers as being the original 1639 land grant (in part). Actually the two parcels of land are separated by the James River and are some 20 to 25 miles apart. However it is believed that Richard owned a portion of Nance's Neck and in 1692 William Nance, a son or grandson, received a portion of land that was a part of the Nance's Neck. It is from this area that James Nance wife Ann are found on record - they being ancestors of one of the four old established Nance lines.

Basically most of the Nance descendants living in our country can trace their lineages to one of these four old established Nance families - namely:

- Section I- John and Sarah Nance (Second American Generation)
- Section II- Daniel and Elizabeth Nance (Third American Generation)
- Section III- James and Ann Nance (Fourth American Generation)
- Section IV- William and Ann Nance (Fourth American Generation)

Gen. II

There has been no proof that the following Nances are brothers, nor that they are the sons of Richard; but these three are of near the same age. All lived along the James River and have the most popular names found in all four of our old established Nance lines.

- I- John wife Sarah (living descendants can be traced to this family.)
- II- Captain Thomas Nance - 1688 in Elizabeth City, Va.
- III- William Nance- 1667 in Surry County records.

Thomas Nance was on record as a land owner in Prince George County in 1737. There being no further records, it is assumed he died shortly thereafter. This may be Capt. Thomas or a son, Thomas, and it is believed that the William & Ann family and the Daniel & Elizabeth family connect to this Thomas Nance as the name "Thomas" was most popular in these two lines.

There were two other early Nances of record that haven't been connected to the mainstream of the family:

- 1) Rouland Nance - Baltimore County, Maryland - will 20 Nov. 1682
As his entire estate was willed to Henry Constable, it is assumed he was single and had no children.
- 2) John Nance - Essex County, Virginia
His will shows no children (see Essex County records).

When searching this register for your ancestors, remember -- the Nances were a prolific family. Children were consistently being named for grandparents, parents, aunts, uncles, etc. Quite often, nicknames were used, as well as middle names. Watch particularly for Sally in lieu of Sarah; Molly, Polly, in lieu of Mary; Helen, Ellen, Nelly, in lieu of Eleanor; Patsey, Patti, in lieu of Martha; Betsy, Betty, Bess, in lieu of Elizabeth.

There were many Johns, Williams, Thomas, Clements, Reubens and James in certain areas at the same time. If not careful, you may claim the wrong ancestor.

KEY TO FAMILY IDENTIFICATION

The system of family identification used by the compiler may at first seem complicated, but if one reads the following examples, he should find this whole system quite simple, and should be able to trace his lineage with very little effort.

Each family will have an identification number which precedes the heads of the household. This will consist of the American generation number and the initials of the Nance principal and spouse. At the end of the family, another number will appear, which is the reference number to parents of the Nance principal.

Example:

J.S. II- John Nance (died 1716) md Sarah (believed Sookings or Gookings)

Children: 1) John md. Jane (see Gen. III)
 2) Richard md. Mary (III)
 3) etc.

Geno. Ref. - R.M. I (?)

J.J. III- John Nance (died 1761/62) md. Jane (?)

Children: 1) John md. Martha (IV)
 2) Richard (see IV)
 3) Frederick md. Sussanah "Stokes" Christopher (IV)
 etc.

Geno. Ref. - J.S. II

J.M. IV- John Nance md. Martha (?)

Children: 1) Giles md. Mary
 etc.

Geno. Ref. - J.J. III

When a Nance daughter marries her name will appear first. Also the Nance descendant always appears as first member of an household throughout this entire genealogy - and three identification initials will be used in place of two.

Example:

R.A. V- Reuben Nance (b. 1744/45 - d. 1812) md. 1st Amy Williamson - 2nd Nancy Brown.

Children: 1) William (see VI)
 2) Bird (see VI)
 3) Mary md Jesse Crouch (see VI)
 etc.

J.M.C. VI- Mary Nance md. Jesse Crouch

J.S. II - John Nance (died 1716 Prince George, Va.) md. Sarah (Gookings or Sookings)

See 1716 will. Ages of children and various and sundry items concerning one of the married daughters indicates John Nance was born about 1650. Richard appears to be the oldest son. The will names he and wife Sarah as co-executors. The mention of Mother Gookings or Sookings estate indicates there are entailed lands which, by English law, automatically became the property of the oldest son upon his mother's death. Son John appears to have received the bulk of his father's estate. The writer has done some research looking for the Sookings family of Virginia to no avail. But there was a Gookings family of Virginia, quite prominent. Additional research may reveal such a Nance-Gookings relationship.

CONTENTS

DESCENDANTS OF DANIEL AND ELIZABETH NANCE
PRINCE GEORGE, MECKLENBURG, BRUNSWICK, AND SURRY COUNTIES, VIRGINIA

Division I - Descendants of Daniel and Mary, 2nd wife Sarah (Russell?) contains families of:

- Section A - Daniel III
- Section B - Robert
- Section C - Thomas, Sr.

Material submitted by:

- 1) Mrs. Vitra Shively Wood, 2303 E. 5th Street, Anderson, Indiana.
- 2) Mr. F. K. Biggs Sr., 1505 No. Elm St., Lumberton, North Carolina.
- 3) Mrs. Frances Elkins, 4103 So. Main St., Highpoint, North Carolina.

Gen. D.E. III - Daniel Nance (b. about 1685) md. Elizabeth (d. about 1750)

Parents unknown. There was a Captain Thomas Nance on the James River in 1688, and a Thomas Nance, land owner in Prince George County, 1737, living next to Isham Eppes. There being no further records in Prince George Co. on a Thomas Nance of this age, it is assumed he died soon after 1737.

The given name of Thomas becomes most popular to the Daniel line, as well as the William-Ann line (see Book IV) from whence the writer is descended. It is my belief that Daniel, as well as William, has close family connections with this Thomas Nance.

There is other evidence to help justify this belief. Daniel Sr., Daniel Jr., and William predominate the Mecklenburg-Brunswick records (1737-1770's), all owning land on Janento Creek (Mecklenburg) as well as other lands near the Mecklenburg - Brunswick line. A study of the Mecklenburg and Brunswick County records contained in this book will reveal just how close these three families were.

- Children: 1) Phebe (b. October 1712)
2) Eliza (b. 6 July 1719)
3) Elinor (b. 9 Sept. 1722)
4) Lucy (b. 24 Dec. 1729/31)
5) Daniel Jr. (b. c1706/08)

There is no proof this is a son, but supporting records indicate such. He was born before births were recorded in Bristol Parish. There could be others?

Married in 1780, Mecklenburg, Sarah Russell (see 1784 Randolph, N.C. will) Prince George, Mecklenburg, Brunswick, and Randolph, N.C., records reveal much information.

Division III

Gen. R.A. V - Reuben Nance (b.1745 - d.1812) md. 1st Amy Williamson, md. 2nd

Nancy Brown. Thirteen children by first marriage, 7 children by second marriage. Reuben Nance was born in Brunswick Co., Va. Moved to Henry County, Va. in 1773/74. He received a land patent in 1780, was a surveyor, an ensign in the Revolution, and a friend and neighbor of Patrick Henry. The tradition has been passed down in this family that Patrick Henry said to Reuben Nance when he returned from the Constitutional Convention "The Constitution will prove a road of sand". For further records on Reuben Nance see Henry Co. Va. records.

There is no foundation for several of the statements made in NM regarding Reuben Nance and family. The story of the 28 children was given to George Nance by Jefferson Amzi Nance, a great-grandson of Reuben Nance, who was quite old and feeble when he wrote this letter. The Captain Bird mentioned was not the son of Reuben but was his grandson, whose parents were Reuben Nance Jr. and Francis "Ingram" Nance.

 md. 26 July 1926 Bert Edward Nettles (b.1891 - d.1966). No children.
 Amanda is called "Sister" by all of the family and loved by all for her kindness and generosity to all her nieces and nephews. Her husband, Bert E.
 Nettles, passed on during the assembly of this book. Words best describe Bert Nettles in this editorial published in The Shreveport Journal, Jan.7, 1966:

BERT NETTLES

The death of Bert Nettles means a personal loss to many people who were associated with him in newspaper work in Shreveport during the past 46 years. From 1953 when The Shreveport Journal and The Shreveport Times formed the Newspaper Production Co., until 1964 when he retired, Mr. Nettles was the beloved superintendent of the composing room of these papers. For the last six years of his career he also held the position of assistant production superintendent.

His ability and his personal qualities were widely recognized. The Southern Newspaper Publishers Association honored him by electing him to several offices. He was a member of the executive committee of the Southern Newspaper Mechanical Conference. His membership in the typographical union extended over almost a half-century.

Mr. Nettles was born and educated Alabama. In typical Southern fashion, he enjoyed good company and he was fond of fishing and hunting. After his retirement he spent much of his time at his camp on Lake Bistineau.

He was firm yet eminently fair in all matters concerning the composition room. Never did he criticize anyone's work in public; when he had to reprimand somebody he did it privately and in a gentlemanly manner, showing that he respected the other person.

Invariably when contributions were taken for some worthy cause he was one of the first if not the very first in his department to donate, and cus-tomarily he gave the largest amount. Needy cases immediately touched his heart, and he let them have money or looked for jobs for them.

The Journal is grateful for the excellent service which Mr. Nettles rendered. We wish to express our sympathy to his widow, Mrs. Amanda Nance Nettles.

Residence: 454 Columbia, Shreveport, Louisiana.

WILL OF JOHN NANCE, CLARKE CO., GEORGIA BOOK D PAGE 93

I, John Nance, of the county and state aforesaid, being in feeble health, but in sound mind and memory, and knowing that is appointed unto man once to die and having faith in the redeemer of sinful and hope through his merits of a part in his glorious resurrection. I do make and ordain this as my last will and testament hereby revoking all other wills heretofore made by me.

Having few or no debts to pay and wishing to do justice to all my children, I state that what I have heretofore done for them and each of them I consider as putting upon equal footing, and nothing heretofore given to any of my legatees is to be considered as an advancement, but each legatee is to keep and enjoy what has heretofore been received and is not to account for the same. I wish further to state that the two negroes given by me to my daughter Sarah McAlpin after her marriage were bought by her husband Alexander McAlpin with her own money and although the transaction was in my own name, the money and the negroes never belonged to me or constituted any part of my estate. I further state that the house and lot in Athens whereon William S. Weatherly lives was paid for by him and the deed of the same made by me to his with his consent and that said lot is no part of my estate and was not advancement to him or any of his children he having paid for it himself out of his earnings by paying off from time to time the note in bank on which the money was borrowed to buy the lot.

Having made the foregoing statements, my will and desire is that my children: Reuben, Nancy, Sarah, Eunice, Wesley, Madison, Elizabeth and Mary Ann, and my grandchildren Thomas Crawford and Sarah Ann Park, Children of my deceased daughter Susa, counting as one legatee, making nine shares, equally possess, have and enjoy my estate real, personal, and mixed of every kind and description, share and share alike. My further will is that my executors in disposing of my negroes are not to sell them so as to produce separation of husbands and wife even if they have to sell any of them at a sacrifice.

I nominate and appoint my son-in-law Archibald Moon and son, Wesley Nance, executors of this my last will and testament.

Witness my hand and seal this 25th day of October 1855.

Witness: Wm. L. Mitchell

Her only information was that Clementine had two known sisters, Sarah and Tabitha, who married a Mr. Harmon. Rutherford Co., marriage records list both marriages. Sarah md. Elijah Boring and Tabitha md. Willy Harmon. Willy Harmon later is appointed administrator of Jane Nance (widow of Isaac) estate. All records indicate this Clementine to be daughter of Isaac and Jane "Smith" Nance of Rutherford Co. See Rutherford County records.

FAMILY OF JESSE AND MARY "NANCE" CROUCH

Material submitted by:

1. Mrs. Annabelle Rogers, 1400 Mayfield Road, 57k, Seal Beach, Calif.
2. Mrs. Vivian King Bullock, 11869 C. Washington Pl., Los Angeles, California.
3. Mrs. Joe Hudson, Box 143, Loudon, Tenn.
4. Mrs. Hallie Van Reekum, 217 Pine, Bonner Springs, Kansas.

Gen. J.M.C. VI - Mary Nance (b.30 May 1770 - d.1 Jan.1842, Mecklenburg, Va.) md. Henry Co., Va. Jesse Crouch (b.25 Apr.1760, Stratford Co., Va. - d.22 Dec.1841), son of John and Sarah "Barbee"(Barbary) Crouch. Both buried at Buffalo Ridge Baptist Church, Washington Co., Tenn. This church was organized in 1779 and is one of the oldest Baptist churches in Tennessee, if not the oldest. The Sinking Creek Baptist Church, also in Washington Co., is supposedly the older by some 15 years. The exact date of the Crouch family's arrival is not known, but some records indicate that Jesse Crouch gave the land that the Buffalo Church was built on. Henry Co., Va. Records indicate Jesse to be living in Henry Co., Va. near 1795. It is the writer's belief that Jesse Crouch's family was in Tenn. by 1779. His Revolutionary War records indicate he served in Virginia. It appears he claimed a Virginia bride, remained in Henry Co. and returned to Tennessee about 1795.

See Washington Co. 1850 Census for Crouch families. See Tenn. Confederate Soldiers for Crouches. See Henry Co., Va. records for deeds concerning Jesse Crouch)

Gen. O.E.G. VI - Elinor Nance md. 1797, Henry Co., Va. Obediah Garner of Henry Co., Va. They moved to Rutherford Co., Tenn., and were close neighbors to her sister "Betsy Nance", wife of Allen Nance (first cousin). They are supposed to be the parents of John Nance Garner (d.Rutherford Co., Tenn.) who married Katherine Warpole in 1842. The widow, "Warpole" Garner came to Red River Co., Texas, in a wagon train led by a young John Gooch Nance, also of Rutherford Co., Tenn.

Among several Garner children was John Nance Garner Jr., who later married Sarah Guest, of Red River Co., Texas, and they became the parents of John Nance Garner III, who later became Vice President of the United States.

There have been several variations in the past concerning the parents of the first John Nance Garner, and this writer has found no conclusive proof that Obediah Garner and Elinor "Nance" were his parents. However, circumstantial evidence points to this. Elinor "Nance" Garner was the daughter of John Nance (b. Brunswick Co., lived Henry Co., Va. and died Jefferson Co., Tenn., 1813) and it was for him the first John Nance Garner was named.

CHAPTER XIX

Submitted by Miss Mildred Nance, 3520 Southwood Drive, Knoxville, Tenn.

Gen. J.C. VII - Squire John Nance (b.7 Jan.1814, Tenn. - d.10 Apr.1895), 1st md. 18 Feb.1832 Celia Vineyard (b.13 Aug.1813 - d.22 Dec.1874), 2nd md. 11 May 1876 Sally Z. WILL OF JOHN NANCE,.....26 Oct.1894

I, John Nance do make and publish this my Last Will and Testament hereby revoking and making void all other wills by me made heretofore. First: I desire that all just debts and funeral expenses be paid out of any money may be on hand or may first come into the hands of my Executors.

SECOND: I give and bequeath my beloved wife, Deborah Nance, three hundred dollars over and above the amount that may be coming to her on our marriage contract. I desire her to have all the household furniture she brought here and, I desire that my Executors see that my wife is well cared for as long as she lives, and see to lending out her money and that she is not cheated out of same, to act as Trustee for her, to let her have money whenever she needs it. I can't tell now what may be coming to her on our marriage contract, but I suppose from eight hundred to one thousand dollars. She will keep a note to show what will be due her.

THIRDLY: I desire that all my children be made as near equal in the division of my estate as they can be.

To my son Julian Nance I give the plantation on which he now lives, known as the Sam Smith place. I value this to him at the sum of thirty three hundred dollars.

I give my son Greenberry Nance the plantation on which he now lives known as the Duff place. I value this place to him at the sum of thirty-one hundred. I give my daughter Rosannah Vineyard the plantation on which she now lives, known as the James Allsup place. I value this place to her at twenty three hundred dollars. I also advance to her and her husband Sterling Vineyard some years back, one thousand dollars cash. I also advanced lately to my said daughter Rosannah Vineyard twelve hundred dollars to pay for the plantation they bought from my wife.

I give to my son Paschal Nance my homeplace being the lands I bought from my Father, Seth McKinney, and M.H. Stone. I value this place to him at four thousand dollars. I also advanced to Paschal Nance two lots of fat steers some years ago. I value them to him at three hundred dollars.

I advanced to my son John Nance in his lifetime twenty-one hundred and fifty dollars. I advanced to Cricket's guardian, G.B. Mitchell fifty dollars to help pay for her organ. I have advanced to John's son Robert six hundred and twentyfive dollars paid for land. I desire Johnny 's share of my estate to be equally divided between his three children to wit: Robert Nance, Cricket Nance, and Bertie Nance.

Sallie Mitchell my deceased daughter, I advanced to her I think three hundred and twenty dollars, and the remainder of her share I desire to go to her five children to wit: Elizabeth Nance, Eliza Collett, John Mitchell, Lissa Calloway, Sealy Mcby in the way and manner here-in-after described: I have advanced to Eliza Collett, wife of Jasper Collett eighty dollars. I paid for a gray mare they bought from Paschal Nance. I also give to said Eliza Collett the place they have had in their possession a long time, known as the Ferguson place. I value this place to her at six hundred dollars. I have advanced to John Mitchell, seven hundred and seventy three dollars. I have advanced to James McBee for Sealy his wife seven hundred dollars. Since then I have paid John Mitchell fifty dollars they owed him, making seven hundred fifty dollars advanced to her. The remainder of her share of my estate, that is Sealy McBee's share, wife of James McBee, I detail in the following manner: I forbid my Executors or any one else letting it go into the hands of her husband, but into the hands of John Mitchell her brother as Trustee, and to be loaned for her benefit, to let her have a little at a time as she needs the same to support on, but in no case not to let her have any money to put in her husbands hands. But if her husband should die or she became divorced from him, then the money may be turned over to her own disposal, but if Sealy should die while there is any money of hers in her brother's hands, then such funds shall belong to her brother John Mitchell. But if she has a child or children to go to them as her heirs.

I have advanced to Elizabeth Nance the sum of seven hundred dollars.

I have advanced to Lissa Calloway seven hundred and twenty-nine dollars and forty cents.

I have advanced to my son Green Berry Nance one thousand dollars. I advance to my grandson Sam Nance $404.00 when he bought the Cooper land. Which amount must come out of Julian Nance's share. I have no notes for any of these advancements. Any notes I may have on any of my children are not advancements, but to be settled with interest as other debts. It matters not how long they may have been running they come out of their shares.

I also give my sister Margaret Peggy Vineyard one hundred dollars and my niece Addy Perrin fifty dollars and I desire my estate to be wound up with as little expense as possible.

I advise my notes that is not good to be divided and each one collect for themselves, and I have a large amount of stock in the Building and Loan Company at Knoxville, I wish to remain untill it matures, unless it becomes necessary for some of them to wind up, and as the money matures to divide among my legal heirs to wit: Julian Nance, Paschal Nance, Green Berry Nance, Rosannah Vineyard, the children of John Nance deceased, and the children of Sallie Mitchell, deceased, Sealy McBee as detailed before stated. Any land that I may now own that is not here disposed of, to be sold, or any other property I may have to be sold or divided so as to make the division equal. Lastly I appoint; Julian Nance, Green Berry Nance, Paschal Nance, Issac Mitchell, Sterling Vineyard to execute this my Last will and testament without bond. Given under my hand and seal this 26 day October 1894.

Parents of George Nance are uncertain. In the Lunenburg, Va., will of Frederick Nance in 1795, there is a son, George. No further records have been found on a George Nance in Lunenburg after this date. (See Gen. F.S. IV, Sect. I and Lunenburg, Va. records)

Tradition of this family is that George Nance arrived in Wake, N.C. about 1800 with his mother, Sussanna, and that George had several brothers and sisters: Lewis, William, Nat, Nancy who md. ? Singleton and moved to Ala. Patty who md. ? Lamb. (Giles Nance, nephew of Frederick mentioned above, also moved to Wake, N.C. shortly after 1800 and the two families were thought to have been close relations, although the exact relationship is undetermined.)

George Nance left a will in 1844, (Wake, N.C. records). Children named below are from Bible records.

DIVISION III

THE NEWBERRY COUNTY, S.C., NANCES DEAD ENDS

The ancestry of three earliest Nances of Newberry County has caused much speculation and confusion among Nance genealogists:

- 1) Frederick Nance Sr. (b. 15 Aug. 1770, Amelia Co., Va. - d. 10 Feb. 1840) from R.A.N.
- 2) Clement Nance (b. 27 Feb. 1773 - d. 18 Nov. 1843) from Bible records
- 3) Robert Nance (a native of Va., b. 10 Jan. 1776 - d. 27 Nov. 1822) 16 Feb. 1799, md. Sarah Walker, Lunenburg, Va.

1) Frederick Nance Will (made 1 Nov.1839, Probated 13 Feb.1840) mentions present wife Teresa (Ruff). Step daughter Martha C. His children: daughters Dorothy B. Pratt, Laura Ann Butler, Sarah W. Griffin (now wife of Jno. K. Griffin); sons R.R., Drayton, Frederick Jr., and Alfred Nance. Vol. IV Bk. 1, pp. 1-4.

Grave stone: Mrs. Amelia Dunlap (b.21 Mar.1803 - d.2 Nov.1824), daughter of Frederick and Elizabeth Nance. (proof of Frederick and Robert's being brothers)

2) Clement Nance Will (made 8 Mar.1828, Probated 4 Jan.1844) To wife (unnamed) estate, unless she die or marry until my youngest children shall reach 21. To son, William G. Nance, to William Baugh Shell and wife, Nancy. Executors: 1. Robert R. Nance, 2. Drayton Nance, 3. Thomas Pratt, 4. Robert Dunlap, 5. William Baugh Shell. (these executors are two sons and two sons-in-law of Frederick Nance and Wm. Baugh Shell, wife of his daughter Nancy. This is evidence that Frederick, Clement and Robert are brothers)

3) Robert Nance Will (made 28 Feb.1814 - probated 4 Dec.1822) leaves entire estate to wife Sally, after her death to his niece Amelia Nance, daughter of Frederick Nance. Vol. 2, Book I, p.1. (This established Frederick and Robert as brothers)

See Newberry, S.C. Records

See Nance, Newberry, S.C. Cemetary

See Clement Nance Bible Records

See will of Erasmus G. Nance, 1851, Newberry

From NM: David Nance is the father of the three above according to NM. This statement appears doubtful, as the will of William Crenshaw, 1786, Amelia, Va., leaves gifts to his grand children, William, David, Susannah, Mary, and Elizabeth Nance, children of his daughter, Mary, and David Nance, deceased. (The Newberry group would have been minors at this time and it is doubtful that all three would have been excluded from their grandfather's will.)

The following was submitted by Mrs. Mellissa Billings "taken from a lineage book, "Descendants of Angus Campbell". The compiler of this lineage Mrs. Wm. Lowndes Daniel, states that Drayton Nance is the son of Frederick Nance, one of the founders of Newberry, S.C. Apparently she has Frederick Jr. confused with Frederick Sr. (prominent in early Newberry affairs). Frederick Sr. did have two sons, Frederick Jr. and Drayton (35 years older than this Drayton). Little information of children and Frederick Jr. and probable father of Drayton - D.S. VIII (see D.L. VII for children of Drayton Nance, son of Frederick Sr.)

Sacred to the Memory of Lucinda Ann, wife of Frederick Nance, Jr., daughter of John and Rebecca Bullock. Born Oct.31, 1811. Died Oct.8, 1829. Age 17 years, 11 months, and 8 days.

Sacred to the Memory of Frances E., wife of P. C. Caldwell, Esq., and daughter of Major Frederick Nance. She was born May 13, 1816, and died March 3, 1832, leaving her husband and infant son, with numerous friends and relations to mourn their loss. (Notes JSH - dates correct - she was not quite 16 - it makes me want to weep)

Sacred to the Memory of Margaret Ann, daughter of Robert and Sarah W. Dunlap, born March 9, 1835, died 12th Dec.1838. Aged 3 years, 9 months and 3 days.

Beneath this cold Tomb lies the remains of Robert Nance, a native of Virginia born 10th Jan.1776 and died 17th Nov. 1822.

Here lies the body of Drayton O'Neall Nance, the youngest son of Robert R. and Mary S. Nance. He was born Nov. 15th, 1835. He died July 2, 1854.

To the Memory of Mrs. Amelia Dunlap, wife of Robert Dunlap, Esq., daughter of Major Frederick and Elizabeth Nance, of Newberry, born 21st March 1803 and died 2nd Nov.1824.

Sacred to the Memory of Erasmus G. Nance, third son of Clement and Elizabeth S. Nance, who was born 8th Jan.1814 and died 8th Jan.1855, aged 41 years. (Note JSH - dates correct - he must have died on his birthday.)

Sacred to the Memory of Elizabeth Dunlap, eldest daughter of Sarah W. and Robert Dunlap, who died on the 6th Aug.1834, born 25th Jan. 1831, aged 3 years, 6 months, 11 days.

Sacred to the Memory of Thomas Pope, second son of R. R. and M. S. Nance, who was born March 4th 1824, and died Oct. 7th 1826.

Mary E. Caldwell, daughter of P. C. and F. E. Caldwell born Aug. 29th, 1829, died June 9th 1830.

Sacred to the Memory of Frederick Nance, Sr., a native of Amelia Co., State of Virginia, who died Feb. 10th 1840, aged about 70 years. He came to this state a youth without means of friends, but by a course of industry and prudence and a correct deportment, among those with whom his lot was cast, he acquired wealth. As a parent he was affectionate and solicitous for the welfare of his children. As a master, humane and liberal. In his intercourse with men, he was influenced by the principal that others had rights as well as himself and therefore respected them. His children, among the many frailties incident to human nature, saw his many virtues, and mourned, in him, the loss of a Parent and Benefactor. Out of the patrimony which he left them, this monument is erected to his memory. (Note jsh - he had to be older than 70 to have been Clerk in 1785, etc.)

Sacred to the Memory of Elizabeth Nance, wife of Frederick Nance, Sr., who was born March 29th 1772 and died Oct. 14, 1829., leaving a husband, eight children, and a large connexion to mourn her irreparable loss. This monument is erected by a fond Husband as a small tribute of respect to the many virtues that adorned her while living, and will crown her with joys unspeakable and full of glory to which she has gone. For 35 years she was exemplary in the important relations of wife, mother, and mistress, and although she was strictly attentive to the duties which devolved upon her in this life, she was not unmindful of the promise held forth in the words of, "Come unto Me all ye that are heavy laden, and I will give you rest."

DIVISION IV

DESCENDANTS OF DAVID NANCE

David Nance, wife Mary Crenshaw, his parents uncertain. In the NM his father was thought to be William How, but not certain. John and Jane Nance had a son William, bn. 1728. David md. Mary Crenshaw in 1769. The age certainly coincides. The William lived in the same area; however very little information has been found.

Giles Nance deeded land to David and William H. Nance, orphan sons of David Nance, deceased, 1796, for love and affection. Doubtless there was a very close family relationship here. Giles would be much to young to be father of David, but could have been a brother (?). In this case David's father would have been John Nance Jr., wife Martha, brother to above mentioned William (b.1728). This writer is inclined to believe that David is the son of William Nance, son of John and Jane.

Ref. NM says David is a Revolutionary Soldier. No records of Service.

Pittsylvania, Va. Bk. #4, p.41, 23 Oct.1777, David and Buckner Nance brought into court and charged with being enemies to the Commonwealth and charged to keep the peace.

Bk. #4, p.285, 22 Jan.1780 - Robert Bullington found guilty of having stabbed and killed David Nance.

Amelia Co., Va., 7 Mar.1786, will of Wm. Crenshaw leaved gifts to David's children: David and William, Sussanna, Mary and Elizabeth Nance (in as much as all of David's children were minors, the writer believes these are all of the children:

JAMES K. NANCE FAMILY

Gen. J.N. VII - James K. Nance (b.1792, S.C.) md. Narcissa ? (b.1805, Tenn.) Settled in Benton Co., Tenn. about 1825/28. From NM: "Believed to be son of Sandford Nance". See will of Peter Nance 1780/83, Camden, S.C. Also see

Pension Declaration of Pete Nance Jr., Yadkin, N.C. The 1780/83 will mentions a brother-in-law Phillip Sand---. The old handwriting was blurred. This could have been Sanderson, Sanders, or Sandford (believed to be the surname of wife, Elizabeth). Since receiving this family from Mr. Cleonas Nance of 207 So.  PLEASANT NANCE FAMILY

From: Dr. Robert Nance, 32 Grandview Drive, Radford, Virginia

Dr. Robert Nance was the largest single contributor to Part I of the NANCE REGISTER. Most of the records contained therein are from his collection. He has spent many years doing Nance research in an attempt to find the parents of his great-grandfather, Pleasant Nance. At this writing, this has not been accomplished. Should any of the readers of this Register have any information or clues that may help Dr. Robert would be most appreciative to hear from you.

Gen. P.E. VII - Pleasant Nance (b.1814 - d.1892) md. 15 Nov.1836, Henry Co., Va. Eliza Barker, daughter of Allen Barker.

This is my great-grandfather, and I have been able to find nothing as to his own immediate family or parents. Any help here would be greatly appreciated.

He was born ca.1814, probably in Henry or Pittsylvania county, Va.

He married in Henry county 1836, which is the earliest record found concerning him. He was a farmer all his life, and owned land on Home (Holm's) Creek, near Axton, at Boxwood, Va., which is near the Henry-Pittsylvania-Rockingham N.C. line. After the Civil War he moved to Montgomery County, then across the New River into Pulaski County, Va. Most of his children followed him. He purchased land on the New River, several miles from Radford. Most of it is now covered by the waters of Claytor Lake. He died ca. 1892. After his death his wife lived on alone at the farm. She died a few years later. Both were buried on the farm.

His wife Eliza (not Elizabeth) F. Barker, was the daughter of Allen Barker and Isbell McDaniel, who was the daughter of ? and Sally McDaniel. See Allen Barker's will, 1856.

There children were:

James Garland b.30 Oct., 1837, died in Henry County, during or shortly after the Civil War. md. 12 Jan. 1858 Louisa Jane Barker, the daughter of James Madison and Mary Ann Barker. Their children were: John Riley (b.22 Feb. 1859 - d. 1936), William Munroe (b.13 Nov. 1861 - d. unmd.), Mollie Jo.

James Garland Nance was always called by his nickname "Crockett". Today his descendants know him by this name only. After his death Louisa Jane (Barker) Nance md. 2nd Josiah Price.

Harden b.20 Oct. 1839, died Oct. 1862 unmd. He was a soldier in the C.S.A. After the Battle of Winchester, Va., he returned home on a furlough. While there he died of the measles. the Army wished to exhume his body for identification as many tricks were used to evade service.

John Allen b.12 Jan. 1842. Died in Pulaski County, Va. md. 1st 1860 Zenah McDaniel, daughter of William and Rebecca McDaniel. md. 2nd 1913 Victoria Helton, in Pulaski. No children by either marriage.

Charles b.30 Oct. 1844. md. 1866 in Henry Co., Paulina Price, the daughter of Jesse and Susan Price. Lived for awhile in Henry County, moved to Pulaski, Va., then to Texas, where he died. His children were:

William md. Gilly Elkins	James Robert
John Allen (unmd.)	Noridge
Sally A. md. ? Reid	Alice md. ? Young
Eliza md. George Mannings	Rachel md. ?
Jessee md. Lou Emma Owens

Elkanah (Alcanie) b.29 Mar. 1846, died 27 Feb. 1913, at Radford. This is my grandfather. He was named for a very popular Primitive Baptist preacher, Elkanah Turner, in Henry County. Always signed his name A. Nance. 1st md. Sarah Price, sister of Paulina, who md. his brother Charles. Children by her: Jesse Booker b. 1869, died young, unmd. John Pleasant b. 1871, unmd., killed train wreck Joseph Crockett b. 1872, d. 8 Feb. 1942

Nannie Bell b.1867

Alcanie Nance moved to Montgomery county, Va., and md. 2nd 1874 Mary Owens, the daughter of George William Owens and Nancy Deaton, who was the daughter of Elijah Deaton. By this marriage the children were:

Sallie Maud
Frank Stone
Clara Oveda
Beverly Deaton (my father)
George Rice

Henry F. b.1848, md. ?, died in Pulaski

Richard b.30 Jan.1855, probably died infant, as his descendants know nothing of him. Data found recorded in the Henry Co. Birth Register

Susan Isebell b.11 Sept.1856, md. 1878 Thomas Elkins, Pulaski

Sarah b.1860. md. 1892, Alexander East, Pulaski

I believe, but cannot prove, that Pleasant was a brother of Harden Nance, q.v. The two lived very close to each other, and Pleasant named one son Harden. My guess as to Pleasant's father would be John, as he named one son John Allen Nance, the John for his own father and the Allen for his wife's father, Allen Barker. Then Pleasant's son Elkanah, named a child John Pleasant, which could be for his grandfather and father.

CHAPTER III

Submitted by William Mitchell Nance (age 15), 107 Grimstead Court, Glasgow, Ky. This young man has, for the past four years, been seeking identity of the parents of Henderson Nance (his oldest known ancestor), bn. Cumberland Co., Ky., 1808. (See Cumberland Co. records) died 18 Oct.1859, buried Metcalf Co., Ky. near Cumberland County line.

The writer has been most interested in helping this young man and has recently discovered a Knox Co., Tenn. will of Thomas Nance, probated 1822. It is my belief that this Thomas is the son of Richard and Mary Nance of Bedford Co., Va. According to NM, Thomas did move to Knox Co., Tenn. in his old age and married 2nd Mary Cooper. The author of NM admits there is some confusion as to names of children from each of the two wives, but there are some names used in NM common to some of the names in said will. (See Thomas Nance Will)

INTRODUCTION

Through correspondence with Nance descendants, the compiler has discovered that other Nances share some of these same families as common ancestors. This leads me to believe that many more Nance descendants could probably trace their ancestry to one or more of these allied families. For this reason I have included my allied families in hope that some joint effort may be formed in the future to make a more thorough research on some of these.

Most of the material contained in this portion of the NANCE REGISTER has been documented from one of the following sources.

1. "Ancestral Roots of 60 Colonists Who Came to New England Between 1623-1650" by Frederick Lewis Weis, 1950. Supplement 1952.
2. "The Magna Charta Securities 1215" by Arthur Adams and Frederick Lewis Weis. 1955.
3. "A Carolina-Virginia Genealogy" by York Wilson. 1962.
4. "Our Children's Ancestors" by Sarah Cantey Whitaker Allen. 1935.
5. "Ancestral Records and Portraits" by Grafton. Vol. I.
6. "Some Prominent Virginia Families" by Pequet de Bellet. Vol. II.
7. "Hills of Wilkes County Georgia" by Lodwick Hill.

POPE RECORDS

From Hills of Wilkes Co., Ga.

On letter, 22 Apr.1910, by Dr. Geo. L. Pope, Louisville, Ky. to Mr. James Martin, Philadelphia, Pa., we find: "Gen'l John Pope and another member of the family made a trip to England some ago...they had a copy of the Coat of Arms granted to Sir Thomas Pope, guardian and custodian of Elizabeth, afterwards Queen Elizabeth. The motto on it, "Miki, Tibi", meaning justice "To me and to you".

"The arms are: two chevrons gules, a canton azure. Crest: a cubit arm erect, habited gules, cuffed argent, holding in the hand proper a pair of scales or motto: Mihi Tibi. The arms granted to Sir Thomas: Party per pale or and azure, on a chevron between three gryphon's heads erased fleurs-de-lis all counterchanged. Crest: Two gryphons erased. (from a newspaper article by Frances M. Smith - Eleanor Lexington")

"One of the Privy Council of Henry VI was Thomas Pope... Sir Thomas Pope resided with Queen Elizabeth during her minority at Hatfield House, and ...was authorized by her to decline the King of Sweden's offer of marriage... remembered for his endowment of Trinity College, where he is buried...the legend engraved upon his tombstone..."Whatever you wish untold tell no man".

"Robert Pargiter, of Grylworth, will, 4 Feb.1557. My son William and Anne, my wife, shall have my farm, ...which I hold by indenture of Sir Thomas Pope, Knight... Lawrence Washington my son-in-law to be the supervisor of this my last will and testament. A century later we find the Pope and Washington families transplanted in Va., having the same family names, socially intimate and intermarrying.

March 11, 1655, William Pope patented 200 acres in Westmoreland Co., Va. (Grt. Bk. 4, p.31) The compiler thinks this is an error.

Oct.8, 1656, William Pope received grant for 190 acres in Nancemond Co., adjoining Capt. Thos. Godwin's land. (Grt. Book 4, p.89)

30 Oct.1662, William Pope received grant for 200 acres in Nansemond Co. (Grt. Bk. 4, p.406)

25 July 1665, Will Pope grant for 950 acres in Isle of Wight Co. (Grt. Bk. 5, p.114)

1 Feb.1706/07, Son William sells 200 of the 950 above acres in Isle of Wight Co. (Isle of Wight Book 1704-1715, p.48)

William Pope was probably a brother of Nathaniel Pope who appears frequently in early Va. records. He revisited England in the 1690's, and died in Nansemond Co. very soon after returning home. Reference to this visit and his death appear in the Nansemond County records.

The "Southern History Association Publications, Vol. 6, p.508" gives the following: "William Pope and Marie his wife, their children's nattivitties recorded as followeth: William Pope, son of the aforesaid William and Mary was born the 15th of the 8th month 1662; Henry Pope sonn of the aforesaid William and Mary was borne the last of the 11th month 1663; Also Pope daugh- ter of the aforesaid William & Mary was borne...of the 8th month 1667; John Pope sonn of the aforesaid William and Mary was borne 6th of the 8th month of 1670." William Pope is recorded as present at several Quaker marriages. William Pope the son was living in Feb.1706/7, as evedenced by his deed to Thomas Price, previously referred to.

THE MCKINNIE FAMILY

Gen. I - Michael Macquinney in his will, which was witnessed by Jeremiah Exum left property to son John, wife Elizabeth and "young son Barnaby". His will is dated April 15 1686, and is recorded in Isle of Wight Co., Va., in Deed Bk 2 p 254. Wm. and Mary Quart, Ser 1 Vol 27 has an article on "Three Early Landowners of Isle of Wight County Virginia: the three being Jeremiah Exum, Michael Mackquinney, William Pope.

Some authorities give the father of Michael as "Sir Barnaby McKinney" one of the Lords of the Isles. The name is spelled Mackinney, Mackinning, Machinven, Mackquinney. Later it is spelled Mckinne, Mackinney, McKinnie. The historical spelling is usually McKinnie. It is said the McKinnes were of the Clan McKinnon which means "Beloved Son" (see the Clans, Sects and Regiments of the Scottish Highlanders, by Frank Adams).

Gen. II - Barnabas McKinne (b. c1673 - d.1740, Edgecombe Co., N.C.), md. 1st Mary ?, 2nd md. Mary "Exum" Ricks Murphy after 1715. He was her third husband, she being twice widowed and the daughter of Judge Jeremiah Exum.

There have been many lineages published concerning descendants of Col. Barnaby McKinnie that have the Exum-Lawrence lines in their lineages. The following records indicate that Col. Barnaby McKinnie was married twice, 1st to Mary ?, 2nd to Mary "Exum" Ricks Murphy, widow of Jacob Ricks and of William Murphy Jr. 1. Isle of Wight deed Bk. I, p.341 - Barnaby McKinnie and wife Mary sign deed 9 Dec.1701.

Jeremiah Lawrence, 3. Exum Scott, 4. Richard Exum Outland. The ages of Col. Barnaby's children indicate that most if not all of these children were of the first marriage.

Barnaby McKinnie's Will is dated 1737 (Colonial Records of NC, Vol. V 25, p.975.) He petitioned Va. Assembly in 1702 for permission to build a grist mill in I.ofW. Co., later Southampton Co. Afterward moved to Edgecombe Co., N.C.

Whereoppo itt was agreed and ordered that hee should have two boyes sent him when the Comp shalbe able and that the reward of Tobacco allowed him by the Governor of Virginia shall be confirmed onto him." (Recs. of the Va. Co., Vol. i, pp.508-513)

Bruce (in Economic History of Va., Vol. i, p.316) says that this reference to Jabez Whitaker's railed land is the first evidence of the use of the "rail fence" now so well known. He was a Member of the House of Burgesses, which met March 5, 1623-1624, and a member of the Council 1626. He had at least one child, as is shown by the following quotation from Records of Va. Co., vol. ii, p.50. June 19, 1622. "Sir John Burchier's request by letter for his Sonn Whittakers returne for England who (as he saith) intendeth not to stayer here any longer from his wife and child, whome he means to leave behind him, than he can furnish himselfe with necessaries"

Gen. VIII - Captain William Whitaker (b. England - d. after 1662 in Va.). He first appears as "Viewer of Tobacco Crops." Warwick River County, 1639. From 1649 - 1659 he was a member of the House of Burgesses at all its meetings from James City County. He served on several of its most important committees. In 1659 he was a member of the council. He is referred to as Lieutenant-Colonel, 1655, and as Captain 1658, and later. There are land-grants to him in James City County, June 5, 1656, ninety acres; and March 16, 1662, ninety acres. He is referred to as an early resident of Martin's Hundred, and as sponsor for Edward Thruston's son, December, 1668. A William Whitaker is granted four hundred acres, part in James City County and part in York County, April 20, 1689. Only one son known.

Gen. IX - Richard Whitaker received land grant of 135 acres 28 Oct. 1666 and stood sponsor for a Thruston child. CARY GENEALOGY

From "Some Prominent Virginia Families", Vol. II, by Pequet de Bellet.

"The first of the name on record was Adam Carye, of Carye Castle in Devon, England, Esq., who lived in 1208 and married Amy, daughter of Sir William Trewit, Knight. The Devonshire Herald's Visitations of 1620 gives fourteen generations of his descendants. His grandson's great-great-grandson was Sir John Carye, Knight, Chief Baron of the Exchequer in the reign of King Henry IV, who was banished into Ireland for political offenses. His son, Sir Robert Carye was a favorite of King Henry V. 'In his time came out of Aragon a lusty gentleman of England, and challenged to do feites of army with any English gentleman without exception. This Robert Carye hearing thereof, made suite forthwith to the Prince, that he might answer the challenge... At the time and day prefixed both parties met and did perform sundrie feites of arms, but in the end Robert did give the foils and overthrow the Aragon knight, disarmed and spoiled him. This so well pleased the Prince that he received him into great favor, caused him to be restored to the most part of his father's lands and willed him, also for a perpetual memorie of his victorie, that he should henceforth give the same arms, as the Aragon Knight, which both he and all his successors to this day enjoyed which is - Argent, ...bend sable, three roses argent - for before they did bear Bules chevron entries, three swans argent.' (Ref. "Visitation of Devon".1620)

"The arms of the Carys of Bristol and Virginia are identical with those of Sir Robert Cary, of Devon, just referred to. There is a tradition in Virginia that Sir Henry Cary, Knight, a Royalist leader, who went into exile after the defeat of Charles I, came to Virginia and some of the descendants of Miles have claimed descent from him.

"Descended from Adam Carye, about the tenth generation, was: William Cary, Lord Mayor of Bristol, born about 1490. He was made Sheriff of Bristol in 1532, and Mayor in 1546, and was buried in St. Nicholas Parish, Bristol. March 28, 1572. Md. 1st ?, had two sons and two daughters:

It is well here to correct some statements made regarding the Cary family in "American Family Antiquities", by Wellesly, presenting some facts which can be substantiated by the records of Warwick Co., Virginia.

In September 1851, Mr. Eggleston found on a farm called "Bensalls", near Warwick Inn, then occupied by Mr. Lucas, a dilapidated tombstone in five fragments. Putting the pieces together, it was found to bear a coat-of-arms and the following description:

'Here lyeth ye body of Miles Cary, Esq. Only son of John Cary and Alice his wife, Daughter of Henry Hobson of ye city of Bristol. Alderman, he was born in ye city and departed this life ye 10th day of June, 1667, about the forty-seventh year of his age, leaving four sons and three daughters (viz:) Thomas, Ann, Henry, Bridget, Elizabeth, Miles and William.'

The will of "Myles Cary" (recorded in Book A, p.448, June 21st 1667) corroborates the statement of the epitaph. The coat-of-arms of the original colonist is represented on articles handed down from early days, with this motto: "Sine Deo Careo."

Gen. XIV - Miles Cary, Esq. (b.1620 - d.1667) came to Virginia in 1640 or 1646 and settled in Warwick Co., where he married Anne, daughter of Thomas Taylor, one of the earliest settlers. He lived on an estate known as "Magpie Swamps", obtained from his father-in-law, Capt. Taylor, which he devised to his son, Thomas Cary. He mentioned in his will two houses in England, presumably in Bristol, one in Baldwin Street the other in St. Nicholas Street, to be sold for the benefit of his daughters. He owned two thousand acres of land, well stocked; numerous slaves, a mill and a store. His children were born in 1645 to 1666:

- Children: 1) Thomas Cary md. Anne Milner (see Gen. XV)
2) Anne Cary
3) Henry Cary (b.1650 - d.1720)

NOTE: Sir Thomas West and Anne Knollys (Gen. V) were parents of four eminent sons who emigrated to Virginia, viz: Thomas, Francis, John and Nathaniel. Sir Thomas West (Gen. VI) is believed to be the father of Francis West, emigrant to Mass.

Proven Lineage of Violet "West" Nance from "The West Family Register" by Letta Brock Stone. 1928.

The native home of Francis West of Duxbury, Mass. seems to have been in Salisbury, Wiltshire, England. He was born about 1606 or 1616, and came to America as a carpenter. He married Margery Reeves 27 Feb. 1639 or 29, also of Duxbury but they spent part of their lives in Plymouth, Mass. Francis West d. 2 Jan. 1692, leaving the following children.

- 1) Mary West (b. 1640)
- 2) Ruth West (b. 1641) md. Nathaniel Skiff (d. 1691, age 90)
- 3) Samuel West (b. 1643) md. Triphosa Partridge (see Gen. VIII)
- 4) Dr. Thomas West (b. 1646) md. Elizabeth ? and moved to Tisbury in 1673, Martha's Vineyard
- 5) Peter West (b. 1648)

It is generally accepted that this Francis is descended from the De la Warre West Family, but it hasn't been determined at which level. Traditional speculation is: 1. He was the son of Sir Thomas West, first governor of Virginia, 2. That he is grandson of Sir Thomas West, 2nd Baron de la Warre who md. Anne Knollys and son of one of the four brothers that remained in England. The other four emigrated to America (three of these four being early governors of Va.)
