State of North Carolina, Surry County: Court of Pleas & Quarter Sessions November Term 1839

On this the 13th day of November A.D. 1839 personally appeared in Open Court before the Justices of our Court aforesaid Elizabeth Isbell formerly Elizabeth King a resident of the County Surry and State aforesaid aged 84 years, who being first duly sworn according to law doth on her oath, make the following declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the provision made by the act of Congress passed July 4th 1836 and the amendments thereto passed & approved the 3rd of March 1837: that she is the widow of James King who was a private Soldier in Captain Armstrong's Company of the second Regiment of the North Carolina line during the revolutionary War. That she intermarried with the said James King about the 14th of September 1772, which fact she recollects from the birth of her first child Hasley King, which according to the family register kept of the blank leaves of a Bible was on the 14th of September 1773 (which blank leaves accompany this Declaration) & that she is was married about 12 months before the birth of her said first child Hasley – that she was married by Macum [sic, Malcolm?] Currie of Surry County, who was then a Magistrate for said County. That said Currie is long since dead. That there is no one now living to her knowledge who was present at the wedding but William Head whose affidavit accompanies this declaration. That she had two children by the said James King, Hasley & Julon King, whose births and ages will correctly appear from the said family Register hereto attached. That her son Julon died when in his 10th year of age without children, that her daughter Hasley is still alive living in Surry County with her husband Peter Nance – that after the death of her said Husband James King in August 1780¹ she married the second time to Christopher Isbell with whom she lived up to the 15th of September 1811 when he died. That she is now a widow & has been a widow ever since, that her first husband James King entered the Service of the Revolutionary War under Captain Armstrong of the second Regiment of the North Carolina line of Continental as will appear from the Secretary's certificate which accompanies this declaration, and as this affiant well recollects and believes on the 2nd day of June 1776, that he enlisted for 2 ½ years, but died in the service in the North of what was called the Camp fever. That her said Husband James King entered at Surry old Court House called Richmond. That he was marched thence to Salisbury N. C. where he remained some time & was thence marched to the North, and there continued in service up to the time of his death which was on the 2nd day of June 1778 – that she has no personal knowledge of the
